Firemen Save Life of Man In Irvington

Quick action by the Irvington Volunteer Fire Department saved the life of Harvey Wood when he was overcome by gas Wednesday morning at the bakery which he operates in Irvington with his wife.

Within four minutes after receiving the alarm, the firemen were using the department's resuscitator. According to Dr. Lyle Buehler of Niles, called to the scene, it was the prompt and skillful action of the firemen that saved Wood's life.

Wood had gone alone to work at 5 a.m. His wife found him lying prostrate at 7:30. As she was struggling to get him outside into fresh air, Ruben Espinzo, Irvington schoolboy, came to her aid.

The fire department was summoned immediately.

Well trained by Chief Joe Corey at regular drills, the firemen lost no time in putting the resuscitator into operation. Chief Corey had gone to work already Wednesday, and Assistant Chief Al Peixoto was in charge. All the oxygen supply of the Irvington Fire Department was used in reviving Wood; additional tanks were obtained from Centerville.

Townspeople of Irvington, following Wood's recovery, expressed commendation to the fire commissioners of the district for their foresight in equipping the department with a resuscitator. The Irvington and Centerville departments are the only ones in Washington Township thus equipped.

A GOOD INVESTMENT?

Is it worth $500 to save a person's life?

That's what it costs to equip a fire department with a resuscitator. Yet only Irvington and Centerville have this equipment.

If an incident of seriousness similar to that in Irvington had happened in another town not equipped, avoidable death would have followed. Any modern fire department needs a resuscitator, which in many cases can save a person's life from asphyxiation, drowning, heart failure, shock—or save the life of a mother in child-birth.

If you live in a fire district which does not own this equipment, make it a point—today—to tell your fire commissioners that you want them to make this investment.

It may save your own life!

M. J. ROGERS BUYS BUSINESS PROPERTY IN CENTERVILLE

Five stores and offices in the heart of downtown Centerville were sold last week by Mrs. Leonora C. Francis to M. J. Rogers, a retired farmer and business man of San Leandro.

Now occupied by the Louis L. Cardoza Real Estate office, the Abreu Grocery, Dr. Stanley McMillan's office, the Doughnut Nook, and the Alves Barber Shop, the property has been owned by Mrs. Francis for over 30 years.

Mr. Rogers, who paid $40,000 for the Centerville buildings and land, last year bought a group of stores in Irvington. He plans to keep both real estate purchases as an investment.

The Centerville sale was made through the office of Allen R. Hirsch and O. N. Hirsch in Irvington.

J. A. COSTA DIES IN IRVINGTON

Joseph Anthony Costa, 58, a resident of Irvington for the past 15 years, died of a heart attack last Thursday. A native of Portugal, Mr. Costa was a member of the U.P.C. No. 4 of Hayward, and was employed by the Leslie Salt Company in Newark.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Reis Costa, and his children, including: Mary Silva of Hayward, Laura Soares of Modesto, Joe Costa of Irvington, Vera Breecher of Canby, Minnesota, Edward Costa of Alviso, and Dorothy, Esther, Manuel and Richard Costa, all of Irvington. He was the grandfather of five children.

Other relatives of Mr. Costa are: a sister, Vera Accornero of San Leandro, and two brothers, Tony and Frank Montero of Oakland.

Funeral services were held Monday from the Berge Mortuary in Irvington, followed by mass at St. Joseph's Church in Mission San Jose. Interment was at the Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in Hayward.

ROTARY OBSERVES NEWSPAPER WEEK

Rotarians yesterday heard an address, "How to Read a Newspaper," by Edward O'Meara, editor and publisher of the Livermore News. It was a program arranged by C. W. Kraft in observance of National Newspaper Week.

Special guests at the luncheon were carrier boys of the Oakland Post-Enquirer and Oakland Tribune. The Tribune boys were introduced individually by Frank E. Pine.

NEW EYE TESTS GIVEN IN IRVINGTON SCHOOL

Children in the Irvington Elementary School last week completed vision tests by the new Massachusetts testing method, now being used experimentally in Alameda county.

Much more effective in determining muscular eye coordination, far sightedness or near sightedness than the long-used Snelling examinations, the improved tests were given by members of the Irvington P.T.A. to the school's 320 pupils.

Instructions in use of the Massachusetts equipment was given to the P.T.A., prior to the tests, by Ed Taylor from the Alameda County superintendent of schools office.

WINERIES GET FAIR AWARDS

Washington Township folks who were winners of high awards at the 1948 California State Fair and the 1948 Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona will be officially presented with their prizes at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors in Oakland on Thursday morning, November 4.

Mrs. Anna Mayock and R. E. Weibel, both of Mission San Jose, will receive medals and ribbons for their wine entries at both fairs. The salt industry winners of all prizes at Sacramento will be honored when representatives of the Leslie Salt Company and Morton Salt Company of Newark receive the coveted blue ribbon.

POLIO STRIKES IN TOWNSHIP

Mrs. Mary Thompson, 24, a resident of the Zwissig property between Irvington and Newark, was stricken last Monday with infantile paralysis.

The mother of one small child, Mrs. Thompson is at Highland Hospital in Oakland, and is reported to be progressing well toward recovery.

One other case of polio, about a month ago in Niles, was reported during the current spread of the dread disease throughout the bay area.

COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE LAGS HERE

Although no overall figures have been compiled yet for the Community Chest Drive in Washington Township, co-director Col. Eugene Manning says that from all reports to him collections are below last year's figures.

Faced with a township goal of $7,000, Col. Manning and Warren Gravestock, his co-chairman, would like to see the drive finished by November 1. Among the eight communities in the township, only the Alviso district and Irvington have neared completion of house-to-house canvassing by volunteer workers.

One of the many organizations spark-plugging the fund raising campaign, has been the newly organized P.T.A. unit in Decoto.

With the largest towns still to be heard from, Col. Manning feels that the results of the 1948 drive in the township thus far are "not at all encouraging."

He urges all residents of this area to "remember that approximately 10 per cent of the money raised in each community will be laid aside for use by local welfare groups, and that by giving generously to the Community Chest Drive this year, you will be assisting your own township neighbors and friends."

NILES HOME WOMAN PASSES

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Grant D. Miller Mortuaries of Oakland for Mrs. Mae E. Freeman, 79, a resident of the Niles Home, who died last Friday.

A pioneer newspaper woman, Mrs. Freeman started as a copy girl on her father's paper in Wyoming. She later worked on news staffs throughout that state.

Mrs. Freeman is survived by a daughter, Miss Mary E. Williams of San Francisco, and two sons, Don Freeman of New York, a nationally-known artist, and Warren Freeman of Florida. She was a member of the E. H. Liscum Auxiliary No. 2, United Spanish War Veterans.

MANUEL BERNARDO TO BE COUNTY FARM BUREAU PRESIDENT

Another Washington Township resident has been singled out for a position of honor and responsibility in Alameda County. Manuel J. Bernardo, prominent Centerville farm expert, was nominated on October 5 for president of the Alameda County Farm Bureau, at a meeting of the Farm Bureau's board of directors in Pleasanton.

After 15 years of service in Farm Bureau work, Bernardo will be among new officers to be elected and installed at the annual dinner next Thursday at Hayward Union High School at 6 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Bernardo have just returned from an extended tour of Europe, including a special trip to Portugal.

Out-going president William Ralph of Livermore, following a two-year term, will preside at the dinner. A. E. O'Donnell, director of the Farm Service Division of the California Farm Bureau Federation, will act as master of ceremonies and install the incoming officers.

Aiding Bernardo during his term of office will be: Thomas Greer, first vice-president, of Livermore; Rasmus Jensen, second vice-president, of Pleasanton; Edwin Orloff, treasurer, from Pleasanton; Melvin Nielsen, state delegate, of Pleasanton; and William Ralph, alternate delegate, of Livermore.

Heading the program on installation night next Thursday will be an address by Harry L. Bryson, secretary-treasurer of the California Farm Bureau Federation. His topic will be "The Farm Bureau—and What It Can Do for You."

Joe Lazzarini, Barbara Henry and Herbert Andrade, all of Hayward, will present musical selections, followed by community singing.

CANYON BRIDGE FINISHED SOON

Canyon Heights residents and anyone who travels the Canyon roads frequently will be interested to know that the bridge under construction at the foot of the old Niles Canyon Road is expected to be completed by the end of November.

Tony Caputo, San Jose contractor on the job, says, however, that there is quite a bit of road work to be done, and a filling-in job must be done under the head end of the bridge before laying the connecting paving into the Old Niles Canyon Road. Barring mishaps, Caputo hopes to have the entire job finished on or around January 1, 1949.

SAYS THAT UPBRINGING CAUSES TROUBLE

What is the difference between necking and petting?

If you don't know, you should have attended last Monday night's lecture given by Dr. Edith Bryan in the second of her series of lectures at Washington High. The question came up—and was expertly answered!—in connection with her discussion of adolescents, and their adaptability.

Though her topic dealt mostly with teen-age problems, Dr. Bryan digressed occasionally, veering over to more adult problems, expounding her convictions in her totally uninhibited manner which delights her audience. For example, she is firmly convinced that the marriage ritual should read, "I promise to be lovable and honorable," rather than "to love, and to honor." "For how," she asked logically, "can anyone promise to love anyone who is not lovable, or to honor anyone who is not honorable?"

A marriage counselor of many years standing, Dr. Bryan revealed that 85 per cent of those who come to her to have marital affairs straightened out manage to continue on with their marriages and make a go of them. "For the majority of married people," she stated, "divorce is no solution. Divorce only presents additional problems." Most people are better off, she thinks, if they stay married to their present partner, rather than getting a divorce and trying again. "More adjustments should be made, more allowances made for character defects. None of us is perfect," she concluded.

She lays the blame for most faulty marriages right at the doorstep of the parents of the married partners. "Many young people are too emotionally immature when they marry, as the result of over-indulgent parents, or over-possessive parents." She particularly stressed the importance of parents allowing their adolescent children to make their own decisions, even at the expense of a few mistakes. "Let them learn by making mistakes in the little things and they'll grow up making fewer mistakes in the big things."

LECTURE TOPICS

Dr. Edith Bryan's topic for her lecture next Monday is "Today's Problem of Peace—Can Adults Use the Training to Make a Peaceful World?" The topics for successive lectures are: November 1, "Discipline"; November 8, "A Parent's Approach to Teen-Age Problems"; November 15, "Family Relations."

Pacific States Steel Corp. Plant At Niles to Have 1700 Employes

With an annual payroll now running well into the millions, the Pacific States Steel Corporation at Niles is in the final stages of an expansion program that establishes it as the leading industry in Southern Alameda County.

The management of the company this week released to The Register the story of the steel mill's growth from its beginnings in 1937 as an electric furnace operation to its present and approaching magnitude.

Already functioning, and going into full operation in November, is the American Forge Company. The plant has been brought from Berkeley to Niles, where it will employ around 170 men. Claude Roberts, recently moved here to make his home, is superintendent of this operation, housed in a mammoth new steel building east of the rolling mill department.

A new 26-inch rolling mill has been undergoing test runs and will be in full operation by the first of next year. This will give the plant three rolling mills, the others being of 16- and 12-inch capacity. Superintendent of this department is Charles Richey.

Plant Superintendent Otto Weissenbacher states that work is rapidly progressing on the erection of four open-hearth furnaces, each of 110-ton capacity, which are expected to be in operation by August of 1949.

As a factor in the growth of Niles as an industrial community, the steel corporation's part of the picture emerges far and away the largest. Presently there are 1200 men on the payroll here. When all departments are in operation next year, the number of employees is expected by the management to reach 1700 or more.

Pacific States Steel also operates a plant in Pittsburg on lease from the federal government, where 200 men are employed.

Approximate investment by the company at Niles will pass the 10-million dollar mark on completion of the present expansion program. The development is the culmination of a plan set up by its founder, Joseph Eastwood Jr., president of the company.

He saw Niles as a practical location for the operation, situated on two railroads, with a good location in respect to the scrap-iron market, and with room in which to grow.

During the war, the mill was engaged fully in production for the services. Plans were laid then for the expansion which is now nearing its final stages, with attention given to the eventual production of a complete line of high-grade steel bars and shapes.

Associated with Eastwood in management are Vice-President Milo Spaich and Comptroller Marion Newman.

BEST-STARR PLACE PURCHASED BY CATHOLIC ORDER

Although it is rumored that the property recently purchased by the Holy Family Catholic Order in Mission San Jose from C. L. Best and O. L. Starr will be used as a sanctuary for novitiates, no official announcement has been made to date.

It is definitely known, however, that the Starrs, former co-owners of the beautiful estate, have retained 15 acres of the property and intend to build a new home. The Bests will move to Walnut Creek.

The Best-Starr estate is known throughout the bay area not only for its two palatial adjoining homes but for its spacious and magnificent grounds. Its palm-lined front has become a landmark of beauty for tourists who pass through Mission San Jose. Formerly owned by the Galleagos family, the property was later owned by the Lachmans, and still later, by Samuel Metzger and the Davis family who eventually sold to the Starrs and Bests. They built the two residences about 20 years ago.

STREET NUMBERING DISCUSSED BY C. OF C.

Street numbers for houses and business property in Irvington, as well as plans for an open meeting on proposed zoning of the town, were brought up for discussion at the Tuesday meeting of the Irvington Chamber of Commerce.

Bob Wright, chairman of the Alameda County Planning Commission, will be asked to arrange a hearing on Irvington zoning before the commission.

Frank Mayer, chamber secretary, announced that a winter baseball league for Southern Alameda County has been formed, including teams from Niles, Irvington, Decoto, Ashland, Oakland, East Oakland, and two from Hayward.

The Irvington Merchants team will play host to the winter league almost every Sunday, and games will be played at the grammar school grounds.

President Vernon Leal appointed Cliff Rogers and Gus Robertson to assist Mayer with arrangements for the league games.

WARM SPRINGS BOY GETS 4-H AWARD

Jimmy Coelho of Warm Springs received a special award for outstanding achievement on a beef steer project at the "achievement night" meeting for 4-H Club members of Washington Township at Washington Union High School Tuesday night, given by the Eden-Washington Farm Center.

Twenty-five members of the Warm Springs 4-H group were honored guests of the evening, with nearly 100 friends and relatives of the township's young people in attendance.

M. J. Bernardo of Centerville, presented the special prize of $30 to the Coelho boy.
sented the special prize of $30 to the Coelho boy.

One of the series of special achievement nights to be celebrated in county farm centers this month, the meeting was arranged by Home Demonstration Agent Gladys L. Boone and Extension Service Agent Harry P. Bolton of the Farm Bureau.

The program included the impressive 4-H candle-lighting ceremony and the showing of colored slides on 4-H work in this county.

TWO LOCAL YOUTHS ENLIST IN NAVY

Two young men from Newark this month enlisted for service in the Navy, according to the Naval Recruiting office in San Leandro. Both are seaman recruits.

TEACHERS SERVICE TO BE OFFERED

Any teachers within Washington Township with temporary credentials will soon be able to qualify for permanent ratings, according to an announcement this week by Dr. Harry T. Jensen, professor of education at San Jose State College.

An educational extension series is being organized for 15 California counties, including Alameda. The program will also qualify teachers for the bachelor of education degree, which San Jose State is now authorized to grant.

It is expected that teachers for the extension service will be obtained from the San Jose State staff or from locally qualified persons in each community.

HUNTER'S BODY STILL NOT FOUND

Searchers have thus far been unable to locate the body of Julius Veigel, 62, of Newark, who drowned last Saturday around 2 p.m., while on a duck hunting expedition in Mowry Slough, near the salt factories in Newark.

According to reports by his companions, George Sweeney of Salinas, and his brother "Pal" Sweeney from the Newark area, Veigel was by himself in a rowboat several hundred yards away from them when the mishap occurred.

It is not known whether he lost his balance or if a hunting dog riding in the boat could have upset it, but the Sweeneys suddenly saw Veigel struggling in the swirling, muddy waters.

George Sweeney jumped in and tried to reach the helpless man, but saw him go down before he could get there. Friends of Mr. Veigel, who know that he could swim, believe that he was weighed down by heavy rubber boots, and may have been near whirlpool currents.

Sheriff's deputies, Coast Guard crews and friends thoroughly dragged the slough on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, using power launches and grappling equipment, but were unable to locate Veigel's body.

The drowning victim is survived by his wife, Mrs. Helen B. Veigel of Newark, and was employed by one of the salt companies. The hunting trip was the first day of his long-awaited vacation.

YMI FLOAT WINS SECOND AWARD

A second honor has been bestowed on the beautiful parade float constructed and designed by the Washington Township Y.M.I. The authentic plaster replica of old Mission San Jose de Guadalupe was awarded second prize in the Columbus Day celebration parade last Sunday in Santa Clara.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Silva's four sons and Carol Ann Rose, daughter of the Edw. L. Roses, all of Irvington, rode on the float portraying Indians and one of the Mission padres.

Designed by Anthony Sylvia and Clifford Rogers, the same display won first position at the Italian Catholic Federation Convention held in Oakland in September.

A golden winged figurine atop a black base, awarded at the Columbus Day parade, will go among the Y.M.I. trophies.

1½ Billion Dollar Road Block!

RAILROADS MUST OPERATE around the clock every day and night of the year.

Although they know this, leaders of 16 railroad unions are demanding a five-day, Monday through Friday, week for one million railroad employes.

They want 48 hours pay for 40 hours work—in itself a 20% wage increase.

They also demand a minimum of 12 hours pay for any work performed on Saturdays, and 16 hours pay for any work performed on Sundays and holidays.

On top of all this they want an additional increase of 25c an hour for every employe!

You'd Pay the Bill!

Summing up these demands, they mean that these union leaders seek to force the railroads to give one million employes an annual raise which would average $1500 per employe!

The total cost of this would be no less than 1½ billion dollars per year, which is more than twice the expected net income of the railroads this year.

You'd pay the bill, because if these increased costs are forced on the railroads, they must have still further rate and fare increases.

Demands Unreasonable

These employes have had substantial raises during and since the war. Their average weekly earnings are higher than the average weekly earnings of workers in manufacturing industries. They have more job security than the average worker in American industry. They also enjoy paid vacations, a retirement system and other advantages more generous than the average worker receives.

In contrast with the demands of these 16 unions, which add up to the equivalent of 48c an hour, the Conductors and Trainmen recently settled their wage request for an increase of 10c an hour.

Railroads Run for Everybody—Not Employes Alone

The railroad industry must serve not one but many groups—producers, businessmen, shippers, passengers and the general public—night and day, every day of the year. These unions are proceeding in utter disregard of this important difference between railroads and other industries. Industrial plants can be shut down over weekends and holidays, but freight, mail, express and passengers must continue to move. Everybody who enters railroad employment knows this.

Strike Threat

On September 18, 1948, the leaders of these 16 unions began taking a strike vote. But the threat of a strike will not alter the opposition of the railroads to such unreasonable demands!

HI CHATTER

By MARGARET COLE

It's a good thing we had something to take our minds off football after our experience with Fremont last Friday. The wounds, mental and physical, still smart and only merciful time and a victory over Los Gatos will dim the painful memory. When things are in such a state any good news is doubly welcome. And who furnished the good news? Why, Jean Hill and Billie Jones, to be sure! They took off for Reno last Sunday and came home Mr. and Mrs. Jones. We all wish you well, kids, and just know that you'll be very happy!

Seems as though we've overlooked something by not having Vincent Wallace on our assembly programs. Last Saturday he astounded those attending the Toyon Branch picnic at the California Nursery with his versatility on the marimba. Mr. Oxborrow introduced Vincent and accompanied him with his clarinet and saxophone.

We do have a lot of talent at Washington High. At last Friday's Rally Assembly, for instance, the "Mystery Voice" (was it Sal Guerrera?) demonstrated that he has a remarkable talent for amusing people and will undoubtedly wind up as a famous master of ceremonies, with sports announcing as a sideline. That boy could even put excitement into a game of tiddlywinks.

The Rally Committee certainly put on a good stunt assembly, with their television broadcast. Just who had the original idea?

The Queen contest for the P. T.A. Carnival is causing quite a flurry. The nominations are in and it's up to us to sell tickets like mad for the nominee of our choice. The name of the winner will be announced on the night of the Carnival, October 30, and there will be a coronation ceremony.

Spooks, gobblins and witches, dust off your skeletons and broomsticks in preparation for the masquerade at the Niles Congregational Church, Saturday, October 23. A word of caution to Joan—Take care of that costume. Plots are being hatched!

If there's a slump in homework production this week, a glance at the Events Calendar will explain it all. The Theta Rho girls elected new officers, there were church suppers, the Dramatics Club trip to Stanford, parties, Halloween goings on, the game with Los Gatos, and the C.S.F. Dance and no doubt, other events that our spy department hasn't yet discovered.

Appears to be a good year ahead for the Dramatics Club. Don't forget, you members, that there's to be a meeting on Thursday, seventh period and after school. The Science Club will meet at the same time, so make your choice. Will it be Art or Atoms? It's probably just a rumor but we hear from a usually unreliable source that the Science Club will look into the following problem: A calculous matter which receives vigorous rotating exertions accumulates no cryptogam growth.

The noon hour gossip group has tossed around several jokes this week and advises all serious students of humor to investigate the one about the lady and the dishpan.

Thinking Things Over...

By VIVIAN BATMAN

Best definition of a friend I have heard yet: "A friend is someone who says nice things about you behind your back."

UNFORTUNATE

Niles had a short-lived scare this week. A pre-school child was stricken with what at first was thought to be polio. To the relief of many, it was later diagnosed as vitamin deficiency. Strange, that in this day and age when so much has been said and written concerning diet and the part it plays in the health of a child, that such an unfortunate situation should arise. In this case, it was said to be sheer neglect of the child.

THE SAME TODAY

Here is a quotation from Elihu Root, which might well be read by some of our political candidates during these hectic days of campaigning:

"True love of country is not mere blind partnership. It is regard for the people of one's country and all of them; it is a feeling of fellowship and brotherhood for all of them; it is a desire for the prosperity and happiness of all of them; it is a kindly and considerate judgment toward all of them. The first duty of popular self-government is individual self-control. The essential condition of true progress is that it shall be based upon grounds of reason, and not of prejudice. Lincoln's noble sentiment of charity for all and malice toward none was not a specific for the Civil War, but it is a living principal for action."

CAFE COLLECTS TRUCK PICTURES

There's great rivalry these days between the truck drivers who stop at Irwin's Cafe in Irvington.

Last May, Betty Irwin, attractive sister-in-law of owner Ray Irwin, got the idea of taking a snapshot of the numerous trucks and drivers that stop at their road-side restaurant.

In the past seven months the Irwins have taken over 200 pictures, which are now posted on the wall of the cafe. There's a wide variety of poses, and one driver even donated several shots of trucks hauling immense oil pipe lines, that he drove in Saudi, Arabia.

Now, to give added interest to their unusual hobby, the Irwins have started a weekly "free dinner contest." Each week one of the five rows of pictures is selected. Then they give the juke box knob a spin, take the number that comes up, count over to that picture in the row-of-the-week and award the lucky driver whose picture is in that spot a free dinner.

The winning picture is then removed from the group and pinned up in a special "winner's circle."

Ray Irwin says the drivers have always dropped in to check up on news of their buddies along the road, but now they make a special point of stopping. Word of the contest has traveled up and down the truck routes and the collection of photos is growing fast.

LARGE CROWDS AT OAKLAND FOOD SHOW

California's first public food and household show since before the war opened its doors Tuesday, October 19, for a six-day show in the Oakland Exposition Building.

Tickets are now being distributed by grocery and meat markets, and appliance dealers of the East Bay.

NILES MAN'S SHIP RECEIVES AWARD

Lt. (jg) John M. Ferrante, USN., of 980 Second street, Niles, is serving with the Pacific Fleet aboard the submarine chaser escort USS 895, which has just been awarded the Battle Efficiency Pennant and "E" for general excellence throughout the fiscal year July 1, 1947, to July 1, 1948.

The award is a competitive one, based on overall efficiency. Each department of the ship is graded to determine the vessel's final mark in the competition.

The pennant is a red triangle with a black circle in the center and is therefore termed a "meatball." In addition to the "meatball," each enlisted man having served on board the submarine chaser escort USS 895 for at least six months of the competition is entitled to wear an "E" on the sleeve of his uniform and receives a cash award as well. This is an old peacetime practice in the Navy revived with the recent award.

RATES REDUCED ON FOREIGN SHIPPING

Do you have friends or relatives living in sections of Berlin of Trieste under occupation by the United States, Great Britain or France? If so, you can now send them "U.S. gift packages" for Christmas at reduced postage rates.

U. S. post offices, effective last Monday, are accepting gift packages at 10 cents per pound, as compared with the regular rate of 14 cents, if the address specifically states: (for Berlin) "U. S. Sector, British Sector, or French Sector" and "U.S.-British Zone" for Trieste. Parcels on which no zone is indicated, or those being shipped to the Soviet sectors must be prepaid at the regular postage rate.

Those sending packages must be sure that friends live in the proper zones, as the post offices will not be able to answer inquiries where specific addresses are located.

ALMOST 500 ATTEND WEDDING SUNDAY OF MARY PEREZ AND HAROLD TORQUEMADA

A quintet of attendants in satin gowns preceded Miss Mary Perez to the altar of Corpus Christi Church in Niles when she became the bride of Harold Torquemada of Decoto last Sunday at a four o'clock wedding.

Miss Kathleen Martinez, the maid of honor, was attired in a gown of dusty pink, while the bridesmaids, the Misses Isabel Ariza, Betty Freeman, Cora Perez and Edna Lewis, chose gowns fashioned in the same style—off-the-shoulder effect, with four-gored skirts—in a light green. All of the attendants carried bouquets of American Beauty roses.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white satin and marquisette, with rows of seed pearls adorning the front all the way to the hem-line. A finger-tip veil was held in place with a Russian crown of tiny pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses, orchids, and bouvardia.

The two little flower girls, in white net, carrying baskets of roses, were Veronica McElvain and Irene Cardenas.

Joe Monte of Decoto performed best man duties, and Harold Alameda, John Sanchez, Ralph Lopez and John Torquemada (the groom's brother) escorted the guests down the aisles. Mrs. Clarence Crane played the organ and Loretta Lewis sang "Ave Maria" as a solo.

Following a reception at the Veterans Memorial Building in Niles, which was attended by a crowd numbering close to 500, the newlyweds left for the southern part of the state for a two weeks' honeymoon. For her going-away costume the bride chose a gabardine suit of burgundy, with black accessories, and an orchid corsage.

The new Mrs. Torquemada, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Trinidad Perez of Niles, is a graduate of Washington High, as is her husband, who also served in the army during the war. He is presently engaged in the wholesale produce business in Oakland.

The couple will make their home in Niles.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT WELFARE CLUB FLOWER TOUR AND TEA TUESDAY

Whatever your motive in attending the Welfare Club Flower Show and Tea next Tuesday—whether it be from sheer curiosity, the urge to do "something different," or a sincere desire to lend your support to a very worthy charitable cause—you may rest assured that you will not be disappointed at the end of the afternoon. Or should we say at the end of the evening, for the homes will be open until 9 p.m., although tea will not be served after six.

The afternoon promises to be one of the most interesting you have spent in the township for a long time. Let us take you on an imaginative preview. You will first go to one of the three homes (red arrows will help direct you): Mrs. Thomas Power's home across from the high school, Mrs. Joe Adams' home on Thornton Avenue, Centerville, or Mrs. Alwin Searles' home across from the grammar school in Decoto. When you have completed the tour of these three homes, you will then motor up past the Alviso district school and turn up on Orchard avenue where you will enter the Bailey home and be refreshed with tea and incidental piano music played by Inez Silva.

Though we don't like to tell you everything—after all, you'd like a few surprises—we would like to tell you that the table settings you will see and the flower arrangements, under the supervision of Mrs. W. L. McWhirter, will be outstanding. In Mrs. Power's home there will be a table for a formal dinner, with the flower arrangements done by Mrs. Power. In the home of Mrs. Joe Adams there will be a table set for a duck dinner in the dinette, and another table setting for a football dinner in the dining-room. At the home of Mrs. Alwin Searles a luncheon table will be shown, and the Bailey residence will feature a Thanksgiving table.

One of the highlights of the afternoon will be the exhibition of miniature arrangements as done by the nenowned Florence Waye Casebolt, who has also written a book on the subject.

The proceeds of this affair will help swell the funds of the Welfare Club for the work they carry on during the year for the underprivileged and needy.

Tickets for the tour may be purchased from any club member, or may be obtained at the entrance of any of the home.

Dinner Dancing

Mr. and Mrs. John Brahmst and Mr. and Mrs. R. Cozzi went dinner-dancing last Saturday night at the Claremont, in celebration of Mrs. Cozzi's birthday.

Huskies Suffer Defeat; Many Injuries by Fremont

By LLOYD AUCHARD

The Washington High Huskies, captained by Joe Sankene, suffered their first defeat of the season last Friday night at Sunnyvale, in their second league game, bowing to the Fremont Indians and costly injuries, by a score of 13 to 6.

The Huskies from the opening kick-off throughout most of the first half were the superior team. Sweeping the ends and going off tackle more or less at will.

THE TWO BLOWS

Then came the two blows which more or less threw a monkey-wrench in our running attack, pass defense, and gave the Indians the boost they seemed to have needed to start their passing machine rolling: Sankene, at right half, received a hip-pointer, an injury wherein the muscles are torn or stretched from where they connect to the hip, putting him out of action; following Sankene, Durazo, at left half, had a chest injury, received earlier in the season, return to place him out of action on the bench.

The half came before Fremont had a chance to score.

LACK PUNCH

In the second half, the Huskies seemed to lack the offensive punch to get deep enough into the Indian territory to score and the defensive ability, due to the weakened pass defense, to stop the not too classy passing attack of Fremont. The defensive Huskie line played the best so far this season, giving our passers excellent protection, and stopping Fremont's running attack almost without exception.

The first and only Washington tally was made on an end sweep by Durazo for seven yards and a T.D., climaxing a 51-yard march by the Huskies, all the way on the ground. Goularte's attempted conversion was wide.

GOAL LINE STAND

Midway in the second quarter our Huskies made a magnificent goal line stand on our own 11-yard line, forcing Fremont to give up the ball on downs. This, I believe, was the turning point in the Indian attack. From then on out they took to the air.

About half way through the third quarter the Indians punted from our 49-yard line to approximately our 20 where Fremont recovered a much disputed Washington fumble. For the second time that night the Indians were in scoring position. In two plays they ran four yards. Again they took to the air, passing twice, the second one being completed in the end zone for 16 yards and the touchdown, which tied up the game. The attempted conversion was wide, with Washington and Fremonth six all.

Their second and winning touchdown was scored early in the last quarter, set up by a 35-yard pass to the Huskie 6-yard line, where they went off tackle to score. Their attempted conversion was good, making the final score Fremont 13, Washington 6.

HARD-FOUGHT GAME

A possible Huskie rally in the last few minutes of the game was broken up by repeated penalties against the Huskies and an intercepted pass. So ended a very hard-fought game. Dan Goularte and Mel Lewis made splendid showings throughout the game. Lewis turned in by far his best offensive performance of the young season. While Goularte did a good job, especially defensively, he also took over in place of Sankene as captain after the latter's injury. The line, almost without exception, played very good ball, "led" by the hard-tackling of Bernie Day at guard.

Tonight the Huskies return to their home field to play the powerful and so far undefeated Los Gatos Wildcats. The Wildcats, co-leaders with Santa Clara in the S.C.V.A.L., are fresh from a 45-13 victory over San Jose Tech. This is Washington's chance to get back in the league running for first place, possibly their last chance. Sankene and Durazo, I believe and we hope, will be able to return to the lineup for the Huskies against the "Gatos Wildcats," for three years undefeated in league contests.

LIGHTWEIGHTS LOSE

The Washington Puppies, or lightweight team, were handed a 25-0 shellacking by a very impressive Fremont 130 team. Our 130's captained by Yukio Hisaoka, put up a good fight on defense, but were just outclassed by the experienced and well co-ordinated Fremont Puppies. Outstanding B player of the night was R. E. Miller, who did a fine job on defense.

The Washington Puppies also play Los Gatos. Gatos always seems to be able to round a good team, so one can expect the 130's to make it two hard-fought games, along with the varsity.

IRVINGTON TAKES CLOSE ONE, 6-5

The Irvington Merchants last Sunday won a 6-5 victory over the United Auto Workers in a game that, until the ninth inning, was unspectacular.

Leading all the way, with 6 earned runs and 12 hits off opposing pitcher Fernandez, the Irvingtons led 5-1 up to the ninth. Then the visitors rallied with 3 hits, scoring 4 runs before the last out.

All the stars of the game played on the Irvington team. M. Marshall made a 3-base and a 2-base hit; T. Garcia hit another three-bagger, and S. Roderick connected well for two bases.

Pitcher T. Dutra struck out 14 and allowed 4 walks.

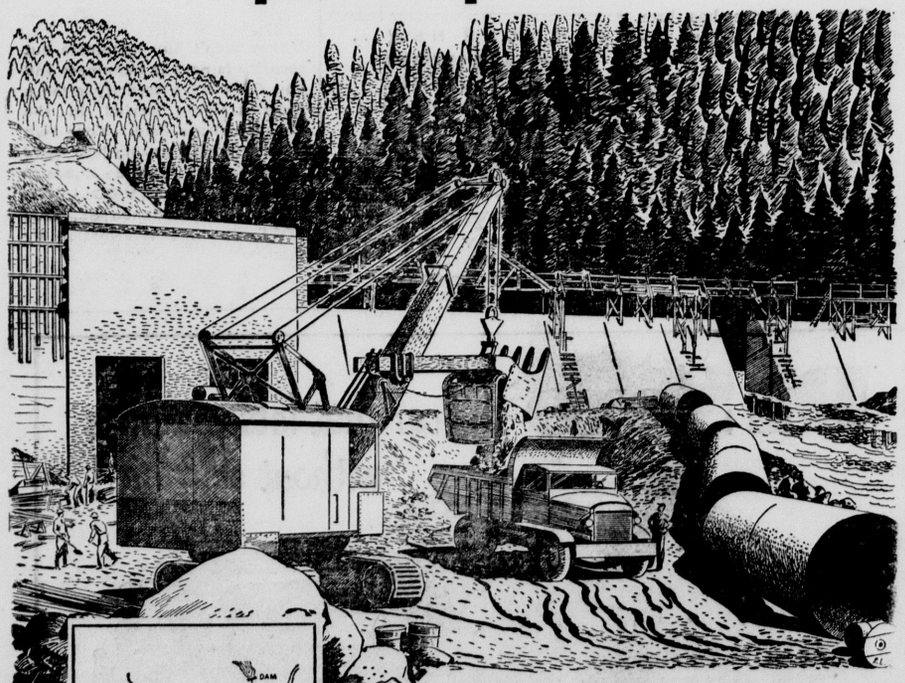
Construction crews rush two new Feather River power plants



Map shows location of the two new plants—Rock Creek and Cresta . . . along with three already built. A system of several dams and powerhouses like this one is an extremely efficient power producer and helps conserve water for irrigation.

A sixteen-mile stretch of the Feather River will soon be turning out 270,000 new electrical horsepower for Northern and Central California. Two new dams, two new powerhouses and tunneling are already well underway...and when they are completed, still more waterpower will be harnessed.

Two of our biggest water tunnels are part of the new construction . . . 10½ miles of tunnels large enough for a double track railroad. We're going ahead full speed, and the project, begun in 1946, will begin delivering power next fall.

for the record

These two new dams and powerhouses will generate enough power to light 2 million 100 watt light bulbs.

But they're only part of a giant power-building program that will step up P.G. and E. capacity nearly 2 million horsepower.

This program—largest in America—has created 6,000 new jobs.

Work never stops on our power-building program

'MEDEA' COMES TO SAN JOSE TOMORROW

Judith Anderson in Robinson Jeffers' "Medea" gives her last performance in California tomorrow night, October 23, in the auditorium, San Jose. Theater patrons from all around the bay area who missed "Medea" in San Francisco are traveling to San Jose to see it. Critics from New York to the coast are unanimous that Miss Anderson's "Medea" is the greatest stage performance of the generation, paralleling the great performance of Sara Bernhardt and Eleanora Duse.

"The Blue Danube," gay operetta based on an incident in the life of Johann Strauss, to Strauss music, will have one performance in the San Jose auditorium, Monday night, November 8. The glamorous star of "The Great Waltz," Miliza Korjus, is featured, with a company of 70, including chorus, dancers and orchestra. Nana Gollner, former prima ballerina of the Ballet Theater, and Paul Petroff, formerly of the Ballet Russe, are principal dancers. The famous Lee and Shaw make a comedy team for the story.

Tickets for Nelson Eddy, appearing in San Jose on November 18, are also on sale with the above, at the Denny-Watrous box office, San Jose auditorium.

CENTERVILLE WOMAN DIES IN SAN JOSE

HIGH SCHOOL P.T.A. HAS GOOD PROGRAM

An interesting program was heard by all who attended the regular meeting of the Washington High School P.T.A. last Thursday in the faculty dining room at the school.

Ferdinand J. Kiesel of Hayward was the featured speaker of the evening and gave a thorough review of the legislation which will face the voters in the coming general election.

Mrs. Marie Brazil and Mrs. Janet Bruner presented a discussion of the school lunch program.

During the business meeting, further plans for the big Washington High Carnival to be held Saturday night, October 30, were talked over.

Three new concessions have been added to the Carnival program: a fish pond, a wishing well and a swimming match. Choosing of candidates for the Queen Contest will start this week and votes will sell for a penny each.

A special invitation to all parents of Senior students had been extended to the meeting, and the evening's enjoyment was finished off by pumpkin pie and coffee.

COUNTY FAIR HAS PROFIT OF $21,104

Cash profits from the Alameda County Fair, $21,104.25 this year, will be plowed back for the improvement of exhibits and grounds as a part of the program to make Alameda County's annual show outstanding in California.

This was announced this week in a joint statement by Harry Bartell, chairman of the board of supervisors; Chester E. Stanley, chairman of the board's fair committee; and Dr. Paul E. Dolan of Livermore, president of the Alameda County Fair Association which works with the board of supervisors in sponsoring the event.

The statement was made as auditors completed their work in connection with the 1948 fair and filed a report with the board of supervisors showing total revenues of $202,337.91 and total expenditures of $181,233.66 in the fair account.

In addition to the cash profit of $21,104.25, there were building improvements, improvements to the grounds, equipment, and labor, all paid for this year, which would make a real profit close to $30,000.

"It is the intent of the board of supervisors and the fair association to build the Alameda County Fair into a real exhibit of county products and make the Alameda County annual event second to none in the state," the statement declared.

"We have made a good start in this direction this year, and the program will be continued as rapidly as funds will permit and the construction program for exhibition buildings can be outlined."

Allocation of $75,000 to the Alameda County Fair from the State Public Works Board will help materially in the general program, the statement declared.

Items approved under the $75,000 allocation were $40,000 for construction of a new livestock barn to house exhibits by the Future Farmers and 4-H organizations; $20,000 for sinking a new well to supplement the water supply; $5,000 for sewer connections to concessionaire booths; and $10,000 for construction of toilet and shower facilities. In addition to these improvements which will be paid for out of state funds, the supervisors' committee and the fair association will meet soon to outline improvements in exhibition buildings and other steps to be taken in preparation for the 1949 event.

American occupation of the Canal Zone began on May 4, 1904; the canal was opened to traffic on August 15, 1914.
